

Monster with a Chocolate Heart Card

Supplies:

Stamps: Yummy in my Tummy (CM 143623/WM 142922)

Dies: Layering Circle Framelits (141705), Sweet & Sassy Framelits (141707), Big Shot (143263)

Punch: 1 1/4" Circle (119861)

Cardstocks: Tip Top Taupe (138336), Melon Mambo (115320), Chocolate Chip (102128), Very Vanilla (101650)

Inks: Chocolate Chip (126979), Memento Tuxedo Black (132708)

Misc: Ghiradelli Heart Square

Cutting Measurements:

- Card base: Melon Mambo 4 1/4" x 11" - scored in center at 5 1/2"
- Layer: Tip Top Taupe 4 1/4" x 3 3/4"
- Inside layer: Very Vanilla 3 1/2" x 3 1/2"

Instructions:

1. Take the pink card base & cut 1/4" off of one end – flip and cut 1 1/2" off the other end – fold along the score line
2. Stamp the monster onto Tip Top Taupe – use a die from Layering Circle Framelits to cut the circle window
3. Take the Ghiradelli Heart Square out of its packaging and pop into a food safe cello bag – cut to size and seal
4. Position the cello filled bag behind the circle window and adhere in place – then adhere to the small flap
5. Use a heart shaped die from Sweet & Sassy Framelits and cut three brown hearts – attach to side
6. Stamp the sentiment and punch out using the Circle Punch – attach to the flap using Dimensionals
7. Open the card and attach the Vanilla layer – and then stamp a sentiment if desired or leave blank
8. And there you have one super cute Valentine's card with a chocolate treat ☺
