

Here is a quick and easy little treat for last minute gifting...a mason jar filled with all the dry ingredients already measured out to make a batch of homemade cookies!

And on the back of the jar is a recipe card so that it is easy for the gift recipient to make their batch of delicious cookies using this pre-measured mix!

Supplies that I used to make this project:

- 1 Quart sized Wide-Mouth Mason Jar with band & lid
- Dry pantry ingredients as listed below
- Howl-O-ween Treats Stamp Set
- Boo to You Framelits Dies
- Happy Haunting DSP
- Basic Black 3/8" Stitched Satin Ribbon
- Silver Sequin Trim
- Silver Cording Trim
- 2 1/2" Circle Punch

Fill the jar:

Fill your jar in layers with the ingredients - use a canning funnel to make this easy - layer as follows:

- 1 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1/2 tsp baking soda
- 1/2 tsp baking powder
- 1/2 tsp salt
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup white sugar
- 2/3 cup chocolate chips
- 2/3 cup M&Ms or Reeses Minis

The lid:

Cut out a circle of designer series paper using a 2 1/2" Circle Punch and adhere it to the lid. Adhere a piece of ribbon to the band of the lid to pull your theme together.

The recipe card:

Print out the recipe card on a piece of cardstock, trim to size & fold in half - I found this recipe on the website www.lilluna.com – you can find it at the end of this tutorial.

Hold it on the back of the jar and tie around a piece of Silver Cording Trim to hold it in place - secure with a knot at the front of the jar - if you want it to be held more securely, use a small piece of tape

Decorate the jar:

Tie a piece of Silver Sequin Trim and secure with a bow tied using Silver Cording Trim around the neck of the jar

Stamp & die cut an image - I used an owl - and attach it to the front of your jar using Dimensionals to cover the knot of the cording trim

Finally I added that BOO! wording just to the top for a cute finishing touch...

And there is your finished Mason Jar Gift ready for giving!
