

Stitched Shapes meets a band of Merry Mice Card

Supplies:

- Stamps: Merry Mice (CM 142145/WM 142142)
- Dies: Stitched Shapes (145372)
- Embossing Folder: Woodland (139673)
- Twine: Bakers Twine Trio (141999)
- Cardstocks: Whisper White (100730), Cherry Cobbler (119685)
- Specialty Paper: Dazzling Diamonds Glimmer (135315)
- Inks: Memento Tuxedo Black (132708)
- Markers: Brights (131259), Regals (131262), Neutrals (131261)
- Misc: Dimensionals (104430), Snail (104332)

Cutting Measurements:

- Card base: Cherry Cobbler 5 ½" x 8 ½" - scored at 4 ¼"
- Layer: Whisper White 5 ¼" x 4"
- Red die cut panel: 2 5/8" x 4 1/8"
- Glitter Paper layer: 2 3/8" x 3 7/8"
- White stamped panel: 2 ¼" x 3 6/8"
- Strip: 5 ½" x 3/8"

Instructions:

1. Texture the white layer using the Woodland Embossing Folder and attach to card base
2. Tie around a piece of red Bakers Twine and tie a bow in front
3. Use a square die from Stitched Shapes Framelits to cut your red paper stitched layer – see my tutorial on how to turn a square die cut shape into a rectangular die cut shape on my blog in the Technique Tutorials section
4. Cut a piece of Glimmer paper to fit and adhere in place
5. Stamp & color the mice and adhere to the glitter paper layer – attach this front layered panel to your card
6. Stamp & cut the sentiment strip and use Dimensionals to attach to the card
7. And there you have one cute Holiday card ☺