Instructions:

1. Cut white card base & white layer
2. Emboss the white layer using the Brick & Mortar 3D Embossing Folder & Embossing Plate
3. Cut a strip of pink & white squared patterned paper from Pleased as Punch DSP and adhere to the embossed layer
4. Wrap around a piece of Daffodil Delight Ruched Ribbon and secure on the back with tape
5. Adhere the embossed layer to the card base
6. Stamp the stem using Granny Apple ink & a stamp from Timeless Tulips and cut out – adhere in place
7. Use the Tulip Builder Punch to punch out the flower and leaves from a piece of patterned paper in Pleased as Punch DSP – use Snail to adhere the leaves in place and Dimensionals for the flower
8. Use a banner die from Sending Flowers Dies to cut the banner tag and stamp a sentiment onto it – I used a stamp from the set Timeless Tulips – add this to your card using Dimensionals
9. In front of the Happy Birthday sentiment add a little yellow flower from Gingham Gala Sequins and adhere a bow tied using White Bakers Twine onto it
10. Add a few white sequins from Basic Adhesive Backed Sequins dotted around and there you have one pretty card ready for giving 😊
